January 13, 2022 Meeting Minutes–

Virtual Meeting

I. Call to Order - Pledge of Allegiance

II. Principal's Report

As close as we could do a normal pre COVID as possible.

Make sure children are bringing warm clothes for recess.

Fun initiatives - Rate behavior on the buses – The Bus Race

III. Treasurer's Report

MoMA event – close to $2400, WHAM donated proceeds from their raffle.

Christmas Holiday shop - $1400

Krispy Kreme – profit $450

Sportswear – profit $846

IV. Old Business:

- a. Sportswear sale brought in $856. Thank you Kelly Klein for chairing. We are hoping to hold a bigger spring sale.
- b. Holiday Shop was crazy, but successful. Thank you to Lynn Losquadro for chairing. Brought in $1,422.54.
- c. Polar Express Hot Cocoa was a little different this year. On 12/23 a few PTO members brought hot cocoa to the classrooms with music on a cart and gave out a beautiful hardcover “Winter is Here” to each child.
 - a. Gingerbread person lawn hunt was fun and well received. Thank you to Chrissy Pirnak for chairing.
 - b. MoMA winter art show was held 12/13. Santa came on a Wading River Fire Department truck. Thanks to the Pirnak family for arranging the visit and Wading River Fire Department for coming! It was a wonderful winter family evening. Thank you to Christie Alotta for chairing. The PTO was able to bring in $2,372, and it was the first time we framed the art ourselves. The framing was a bit of work but we had lots of helpers.
 - c. Krispy Kreme sale was very exciting! People were so happy to get their donuts. The PTO made $452.50. Thank you Jennifer Pendzick for chairing and driving all the way to Manhattan to pick up fresh donuts.
 - d. Square 1 Art creations is backlogged due to lack of employees and supply chain issues. Items should be arriving soon. Thanks to Stacy Yuhass for chairing.

V. New Business:

- a. Fruity Friday has been going well. The next date is January 21.
- b. Valentine's Pop up to be held February 10th. Children will have the opportunity to purchase small Valentine's gifts for family members. It will run similar to school store and fruity Friday during the children's lunch period. We have a chairperson.
- c. Looking for new ideas for family fun events that are covid safe in February or March.

VI. Other Business:

- a. Questions/Concerns. Floor is open to anyone who has suggestions, ideas, or would like to create something new.
- b. Move to adjourn
